Maryland State Library Board to Meet

BALTIMORE — The Maryland State Library Board will meet from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 10, 2026.

The meeting will be held in hybrid format and can be joined via Zoom or in-person at the Enoch Pratt Free Library Central Branch in Baltimore.

Disclaimer: Part of the meeting may be conducted in closed session in which members of the public are not permitted to attend. The topics of discussion during closed session will be disclosed in the minutes of the next meeting as required by the Open Meetings Act (§General Provisions Article 3-305).

About the Maryland State Library Agency

The Maryland State Library Agency (MSLA) is an independent agency providing leadership and guidance for the planning and coordination of libraries in the state. MSLA administers all state and federal funding for public libraries, oversees policy development and compliance for libraries, promotes the planning and implementation of various programs, advances professional development through education and certification, and facilitates coordination and resource sharing among all types of libraries. MSLA oversees Maryland's 24 public library systems, the Maryland State Library for the Blind and Print Disabled, the Maryland Deaf Culture Digital Library, the Governor's Young Readers Program, the County Library Capital Grant Program and the Library Associate Training Institute.
